LUCY NUNN CAPTURES WOMEN'S SOUTHERN AMATEUR CHAMPIONSHIP TITLE!

Lucy Nunn 2008 WSGA Champion

Lindy Labauve 2008 WSGA Finalist/Runner-up

University of Arkansas senior Lucy Nunn captured the 93rd Women's Southern Amateur with a par on the 34th hole to edge out Louisiana State's Lindy Labauve. The players were all square at the end of the 18th hole but Nunn quickly surged ahead and was up three on the next nine before Labauve won the 27th hole to cut the lead to two. After the turn, Nunn again went to 3 up after the 28th hole but Labauve birdied the next hole to cut it again to two. They halved a couple of holes but Nunn won the 33rd hole with a par and closed the match with both players playing to par on the 34th hole.

Nunn follows Arkansas teammate Stacy Lewis as Southern Champion.

Final Set at Women's Southern

Lindy Labauve

Lucy Nunn

The day started with eight players, six collegians, one junior and one mid-am. The quarter final matches were tightly contested and when they were over it was three collegians and the mid-am from Houston. Marilyn Hardy battled all morning to finally put away University of Texas senior, Kristin Walla,

2&1. University of Arkansas senior Lucy Nunn got out to a quick 5 up lead and outlasted University of Virginia, Kristin Simpson, 4&3. Lindy Labauve took advantage of some mistakes and played very steady to defeat junior golfer Natalie Reeves. Calle Nielson rallied late to defeat Texas A&M's Lauren Johnson 3&2.

In the afternoon the semi-finals had Lucy Nunn again starting well and coupled with some putting mishaps managed a 3 up lead at the turn. Calle Nielson battled back with some impressive iron play and it was even going into sixteen. Nielson's approach on 16 was about 10 feet short of the pin with Nunn in the rough to the right of the green. Nunn left her chip in the fringe but managed to make the 20 foot putt from there for par to tie Nielson again. On seventeen both players missed the green long but Nunn's chip was stiff and Nielson just missed her par putt. The match ended on the island hole when Nunn hit her approach within 2 feet for birdie.

Lindy Labauve, LSU sophomore and Marilyn Hardy exchanged the lead for several holes but Labauve took charge during the middle of the round to build a 5 up lead. Hardy came back to cut the lead to 2up but ran out of holes and lost 2 and 1.

The final match will be 36 holes and begin at 7:30 a.m. with a one hour break at the end of eighteen.

QUARTERFINAL FIELD SET AT WOMEN'S SOUTHERN AMATEUR

The wind blew at the Island Course at the Clubs of Kingwood, Kingwood, TX, which helped with the heat but also brought new challenges to the difficult course. The first match of the day went all the way to eighteen before Co-Medalist Calle Nielson stuck her approach shot within two feet and sunk the putt to win the match over University of Texas's Shannon Fish. The two other Co-Medalists Eleana Collins and Kingwood's Sara Hemingway were defeated in their matches, Collins losing to Lindy Labauve, 1 up and Hemingway losing to Kristin Walla by the same score.

In the battle featuring two junior players, it took twenty holes for sixteen year old Natalie Reeves, Dallas, TX, to defeat seventeen year old Kamryn Ruffin from Oklahoma. Marilyn Hardy outlasted fellow Texan Mina Hardin, 1 up to advance to the round of eight as the only player above college age.

University of Arkansas junior Lucy Nunn won her match with Caitlin Bliss 4 & 3. University of Virginia's Kristen Simpson defeated Oklahoman Christy Carter 4 & 2. Lauren Johnson, Texas A&M also made the quarterfinals by defeating Elizabeth Wendt 2 & 1.

Quarterfinal Matches begin at 8:02 a.m and semi-final matches will begin approximately 1:30 pm. The final match will be 36 holes which will begin at 7:30 a.m.

First Round Match Play

YOUTH IS NOT DENIED AT WOMEN'S SOUTHERN AMATEUR

The 93rd Women's Southern Amateur began Match Play today at the Island Course at the Clubs of Kingwood, Kingwood, TX. The low thirty-two players from the qualifying round on Monday produced some notable upsets. Lucy Nunn, Lawton, Ok and a junior at the University of Arkansas closed out two-time Southern champion Robin Burke, Houston, TX, 5 & 4. Then Lindy Labauve from Louisiana State University birdied the 18th hole to take current USGA Senior Champion, Anna Schultz, Rockwall, TX to extra holes and closed out that match on the 21st hole.

All three medalists advanced to the second round. Calle Nielson defeated fellow University of Virginia teammate Carly Truitt, 3 & 1. Another University of Virginia Medalist Eleana Collins defeated Haley Hocott, San Antonio, TX, 5 & 4. Kingwood local Sara Hemingway shut out Jodi Neal, Bryan, TX, 3 & 1.

Junior player and tournament junior medalist Kamryn Ruffin, Pryor, OK in her first match play experience upset University of Georgia's Garrett Phillips, 2 & 1. Fellow junior player Natalie Reeves, Dallas, TX also won defeating Janine Fellows 3 & 2.

Mina Hardin, Fort Worth and Marilyn Hardy, Houston both won their matches and become the only two players beyond college age. Lyn Jones, Houston, TX had a hole in one on the third hole but lost her first round match in Third Flight to Marti Ross.

Qualifying Round

Callie Neilson

Sara Hemingway

Eleana Collins

Local golfer Sara Hemingway eagled the difficult signature 18th hole at the Island Course at the Clubs of Kingwood to join two University of Virginia golfers, Eleana Collins and Calle Nielson at one under par 73. Hemingway had one birdie and one bogey on the front nine and with a bogey on the fourteenth hole was one over going into the 502 yard eighteenth. After a great drive, she hit a five wood inside 8 feet and sunk the putt.

Nielson playing in the first group of the day birdied the first hole and made the turn at even par. Her back nine saw three birdies and two bogeys, one at the tough eighteenth to finish her round at 73. Her teammate, Collins had the most consistency with two birdies on the front and one bogey on the back.

The championship flight cut was at 82 with a playoff involving 6 players for one spot. Carly Truitt, the fourth University of Virginia won the playoff on the third hole.
