Hardin Wins Again at Southern

Mina Hardin, Fort Worth, TX
2011 WSGA Senior Amateur Champion

Beginning the day with a six shot lead, Mina Hardin, the defending champion from Fort Worth, Texas , realized that 2009 WSGA Senior Champion Patty Moore was having a good round. Moore shot a one under 71 for the low round of the tournament but it was not enough to overtake Hardin. Hardin birdied the 17th hole which sealed the victory and Moore's birdie at 18 got her under par but still 2 strokes back.

Patty Brogden finished third, eight shots off the lead with two-time WSGA Senior Champion Anna Schultz finishing fourth. Claudene Lindberg from Atlanta, Georgia won the Super Senior Title and finished tenth overall.

2011 WSGA Players to Watch

Patty Moore – Champion in 2000 and 2009, runner up in 2007, 2003, of Charlotte, NC wants that trophy back in the Pinehurst Country Club display case. Moore is a USGA Women's Senior Amateur qualifier.

Super Senior Defending Champion Wanda Carroll of Jonesboro, AR wonders if any young guns turned 70 in time to match her talents on the Augusta like greens of Palmetto Club. Her hole-in-one in the practice round of the WSGA 2010 Senior proved she doesn't always have to putt.

The Texas dueling duo of Anna Shultz (2006 and 2007 Champion) and Mina Hardin (Defending Champion) are poised and ready to bring this duo to the historic links of the Palmetto Club of Aiken, SC. Both Schultz and Hardin are USGA Women's Senior Amateur qualifiers. Hardin is the 2010 USGA Women's Senior Amateur Champion.

This Mississippi Pair are tired of being bridesmaid to the WSGA Champions and are looking to put some heat on those "Silver Polishing" past Champions. Shelia Haynes (L)of Madison, Ms and Pam Posey (R)of Bailey, MS

Connie Bousquet of Birmingham is the lone entry for the State of Alabama. This tall golfer has the rhythmic swing that can conquer a course designed for hickory sticks. Beware, she will also be coming from the USGA Senior Amateur.

Leslie Henry of Addison, TX will be in the players mix for the WSGA Senior 2011 title , having captured the Co-Senior Medalist Trophy at the WSGA Amateur in June, 2011 in Atlanta. Henry's length on the 5360 yard course at the Palmetto Club may give her an advantage. This tall Texan is always a threat to go low.

A newcomer to the WSGA Senior Amateur, Pat Brogden of Garner, NC comes to the Championship as the reigning Carolinas Senior Amateur Champion for two years running. Brogden will be bringing her left-handed, cross-handed game to South Carolina to see if she can conquer the 119 year old Palmetto Course. Brogden is another USGA Women's Senior Amateur qualifier.

Super Senior entry Claudine Lindberg of Atlanta, GA has a house full of trophies, having won the GSGA Senior title in 2001, 02, and 06. She also won the GSGA Women's Senior player of the year in 2004. She may be the player to challenge the defending WSGA Super Senior Champion, Wanda Carroll, on one of the oldest courses in the nation.

Marlene Summers of Montgomery, TX , the 2011 TSWGA (Texas Senior) match play winner, has been working on her game in the extreme Texas heat. She qualified again this year for the USGA Senior Amateur and will be coming with with her golf game in automatic gear.

Nicknamed the “gymnast ” for her flexible swing, is Donna Kay Meyer from Nassau Bay, TX . Meyer is in Tennessee with the top entries having qualified for the USGA Senior.

Charlotte Grant of Greensboro, GA, former Wake Forest college stand-out and former LPGA tour player is bringing lots of talent to challenge the links of the Palmetto course. Grant is Georgia's top chance of upsetting the North Carolina/Texas showdown.

Pam Spikes with her classic swing has been on the Player Watch for decades in the Archives of the WSGA. This Arkansas player can always be found in her Arkansas "RED" signature color on the course. She, also, is off playing the USGA Senior.

Other notable Senior contestants in the field include Nancy Parvin and Nancy Beck, both from Dallas, TX. Parvin is a USGA Women's Senior Amateur qualifier. Beck is a Texas golf icon always active in North Texas amateur golf and the Texas Challenge.
