Emee Herbert captured the 2012 WSGA Amateur Crown with patience and a putter that came alive on the 32nd, 33rd, and 35th hole of the 36 hole Championship match.

Rika Park and Herbert traded leads back and forth for over 3 hours to finish the morning round at even. In the afternoon heat, the match took a different persona as each player took turns controlling the match. In the end, Herbert had gained control and despite valiant efforts by Park, victory came 3 and 1.

Herbert is from Johns Creek, GA and will be returning in the fall to the Tusculum Pioneer Golf team at Tusculum College as a sophomore.

Park is from Coral Gables, FL and plays on the University of Miami golf team and is also a sophomore.

Thursday's Match Results

The Finalists!!

Emee Herbert Tusculum College

Rika Park University of Miami

The Semi-Finalists!!

Collins Bradshaw Columbia, SC

Maia Schechter University of North Carolina

Golf shots of professional quality rang through-out Myers Park Country Club's golf course, as the young guns, with college logos, still standing in the Championship Flight vied for a chance to be in the final 36 hole Match of the 2012 WSGA Amateur.

Collins Bradshaw was first to post a win in the morning quarterfinals against Karli Heimbecker winning 4 & 3.

Emee Herbert of Tusculum College's Pioneer Golf team finished next with a 3 and 2 win over Kathryn Fowler of the University of Mississippi team.

Rika Park of the University of Miami carried Dianiela Lendl from the University of Alabama team to the eighteenth hole before winning 1 up.

The longest quarterfinal match was that of Maia Schechter of the University of North Carolina golf team. Allie Knight of Middle Tennessee State University forced Schechter to the nineteenth hole before Schechter could card the win.

Tomorrow, starting at 8. a.m the surviving pair of golfers, Rika Park and Emee Herbert will start out on their adventure that will make history and be recorded in the annuals of the WSGA.

Our WSGA records show that 100 years ago Mrs Frank Jones, the 4th seed, defeated Mrs George Harrington, the 3rd seed, 4 and 3 in the finals of the 2nd WSGA Amateur Tournament. One hundred years from now, historians can look back and read the two names of the ladies that play Friday May the 25th 2012 for the WSGA Amateur Crown.

Park and Herbert have similar unflappable games that should provide a long and grueling match as both players get down to the business of playing golf. Both by their actions, on and off the course, radiate a true excitement and love for the game.

May 23, Second Round of Match Play WSGA 2012 Amateur Story line

Rika Park , the 4th seed defeated Vanessa Koechli of Greer, to remain the lowest seed still in the field at the WSGA 2012 Amateur at Myers Park Country Club. Park dressed in her University of Miami orange and green had a tight match with Koechli dispatching her on the 18th hole 1 up.

Karli Heimbecker of Sanford, NC, the 9th seed, is North Carolina's hope to reclaim the trophy last won in 1995 by Brenda Corrie-Kuehn of Fletcher.

Collins Bradshaw of Columbia, SC finished her opponent off quickly 5 and 3 and will face Heimbecker in the first match of the day, Thursday.

Park will square against Daniela Lendl of Vero Beach, FL, who had to go to the 19th hole to win against Emily Wright.

Two Georgia gals will face off in the 3rd match in Kathryn Fowler of Americus and Emee Herbert of Johns Creek. Both won 3 and 2 to advance.

Allie Knight of Knoxville, TN will face Maia Schechter of Takoma, MD for the last match. Schechter's match went to 21 holes against 2011 WSGA Finalist Meagan Roberts of Ocean Springs, MS.

Stacey Adams of Asheville North Carolina holed-out on #5 with a six iron to win the hole against Marilyn Nolan-Johnson of Marietta, GA. That hole has given up two hole-in-ones this week with Lauren Cate making one, also with a six iron, in the practice round on Monday.

First Round Match Play News Release

Top Seeds go down in the first round of the 2012 WSGA Amateur

Hannah Pierce of King George, VA survived the sudden death play-off to get into the Championship flight. Pierce was tied with 8 others with her cut line score of 77 when play ended Monday. In the twilight of Monday evening, she captured the 32nd seed's spot in the Championship flight with a "stick it close" birdie.

Now, in the early morning dew of the first round, Pierce simply sank putts with confidence and determination to dispatch the Medalist, Megan Vaughn of Little Rock, AR 4 and 2. Corinna Rees, the 2010 WSGA Finalist, seeded second with a qualifying score of 69, fell to another survivor of the sudden death play-off, Kathryn Fowler of Americus, GA 2 and 1. Fowler is a member of the University of Mississippi golf team.

Dawn Woodard, a mid amateur from Greer, SC, used her putter and years of playing the WSGA event to quickly dispense with Kailey Walsh of Boca Raton, FL 5 and 4. Woodard was the first in the sudden death play-off to gain one of the three spots with a birdie on the first play-off hole.

Woodard jokingly commented after the rounds were finished and the sweet sixteen determined "It is just me and the college kids tomorrow; all else are gone." Rika Park of Coral Gables, FL, the 4th seed managed to win a tight match with Patty Moore of Charlotte; 2 and 1.

Qualifying Round Results

Beautiful weather and stellar conditions produced four subpar rounds in the WSGA 97th playing of its Amateur. Leading the way was University of Arkansas at Little Rock's Megan Vaughn. Vaughn's score card of five birdies and one lone bogey gave her a medalist honor with a 68. She will be the number one seed going into Tuesday's start of Match Play.

Another Arkansas golfer, Corinna Rees from Fayetteville followed Vaughn's lead with a 69. Rees had to eagle #17 by sinking a 32 foot putt to capture the number 2 seed. Rees is an alumni of the University of Arkansas golf team in Fayetteville; and a 2010 WSGA Amateur Finalist. Two Florida girls round out the top four scores. Kailey Walsh of Boca Raton, shot a 70 followed by Rika Park of Carol Gables with a 71. Park is a native of Japan playing for the University of Miami.

Carolyn Creekmore of Dallas, TX shot a 74 to steal the Senior medalist title from Charlotte's own Patty Moore by 2 shots. Creekmore was WSGA Finalist in 2004 and the Senior Champion in 2008.

Evelyn Dole of Raleigh, NC will be taking home the Junior medal with her 3 over round of 75.

News release for Women's Southern Golf Associations 2012
Amateur

Charlotte, NC
Myers Park Country Club. 6083 yards Par 72 Rating/Slope 75.2/134
Qualifying round on May 21st Match Play begins May 22nd
May 21-25th, 2012

The field is set, the course defined and ready for the start of the 97th playing of the WSGA Amateur. In 1912 the second WSGA Amateur was held in Nashville, TN with an entry fee of $2 and a field of 20. Scores in the qualifying round ranged from 96 to 168. Much has changed in women's golf in a hundred years. As you can see from our 1912 picture of the field, fashion dictates of the era restricted golf movements. Scores have dropped over the century as skirts and attire shortened and golf specific clothes were designed. Women used to carry rubber bands to tie up the long skirts so they would not interfere on a windy day on a long putt.

Today there are 23 entries of zero handicap or better indexes all vying for a spot in the Championship flight. The lowest handicap index is Corinna Rees, former University of Arkansas star. Rees was finalist in the 2010 event but had to withdraw her entry due to a wrist injury in 2011, her Senior year at U. of A. Meaghan Roberts, a former teammate of Rees, was finalist to Calle Nielson (now on the LPGA Futures Tour) in 2011. This Arkansas pair bring some valuable match play experience having survived to a final 36 hole WSGA championship round. Also, in the field is another University of Arkansas at Little Rock's star Megan Vaughn .

North Carolina, the host State, has 6 players with handicaps par or below that hope to return the trophy to the State. North Carolina has only held the trophy twice in the history of the WSGA with the win of Estella Page in 1946 from Chapel Hill and Brenda Corrie-Kuehn in 1995 of Fletcher, NC. North Carolina will be led by the second lowest index in the field, Evelyn Dole of Raleigh, followed by Charlotte's own Emrey Allison, Raleigh's Brook Baker, Asheville's Debbie Adams, Emily Wright from the UNCW golf team and Salisbury's Allison Lee.

Florida has University of Miami 's Rika Park, Kate Scarpetta of Howey in the Hills, Meghan Stasi of Oakland Park and Kailey Walsh of Boca Raton as hopefuls. Florida has had more champions than any of the Southern States in the history of the WSGA.

Virginia brings Sydney Hudson of Prince George, and Shabril Brewer of Fairfax both known to go low in scoring.

Georgia has hope in Emee Herbert a member of the Tusculum College's golf team from Johns Creek and Kathryn Fowler from Americus, GA ( member of the University of Mississippi women's golf team).

South Carolina looks to Maureen Dunnagan of Lexington, Tiffany Robbins of Fort Mill, and Dawn Woodard of Greer to challenge the other states for the crown.

Texas has two former WSGA Amateur Senior medalists in the field trying to prove experience can compete against the youngsters. Carolyn Creekmore was finalist in 2004, quarterfinalist in 2010. She brings her wisdom and years of experience to the matches. Leslie Henry, using her height to her advantage, challenges the length of the youth. She was co – senior medalist in 2011 gaining her a berth in the Championship flight.

Action begins with the qualifying round on Monday the 21st. Results of each round will be posted on our website each day as they are available.

Myers Park Country Club, the site of the WSGA 2012 Amateur, continues the WSGA'S tradition of finding historic and challenging courses for our Amateur play.

Myers Park Country Club was chartered in 1921 on a beautiful park setting of trees planted for the future by a cotton plantation owner. In 1945 Donald Ross completed a re-design of the golf course, which gained instant fame combined with the name Byron Nelson. The Charlotte Open, held at Myers Park Country Club in 1945, was stop number two on Byron Nelson's incredible eleven straight PGA tour wins. This record today is deemed "unbreakable".

In 2008 the Myers Park C.C. Golf Course was resigned by Kris Spence. Spence brought the Ross design into the modern era of golf by reworking the greens, tee boxes, re-contouring slopes and re-shaping bunkers. The resulting course still reflects the golden era of golf design in the U.S. under Donald Ross; yet, challenges modern players of all levels on a most magnificent setting of a Oaks, Maple trees and rolling terrain.

You can view each hole of the course by visiting the Myers Park website at www.myersparkcc.com. Under "amenities" will be golf. From there you will be guided to the pictorial tour of each hole.

You may also note on the club's home page that the Club was awarded the coveted Platinum Club Award for Country Clubs in 2009.

WSGA 2012 Amateur Championship

Tidbits from the Tournament.....

Allie Knight of Knoxville, TN, bunkered on number #16

Daniela Lendl of Vero Beach, FL, wearing her University of Alabama team hat, is almost swallowed up by the deep bunkers of Myers Park
C.C. golf course.

Hole in One!!!!

- Lauren Cate during the practice round on Monday – hole #5 with a six iron
- Sina Turner on the 15th hole with a 3 wood. Witnessed by Marilyn Nolan-Johnson.
- Stacey Adams of Asheville, North Carolina holed-out on #5 with a six iron in her Wednesday match against Marilyn Nolan-Johnson.

Sina Turner and Marilyn Nolan-Johnson.

The Yellow Jackets at the Welcome Party

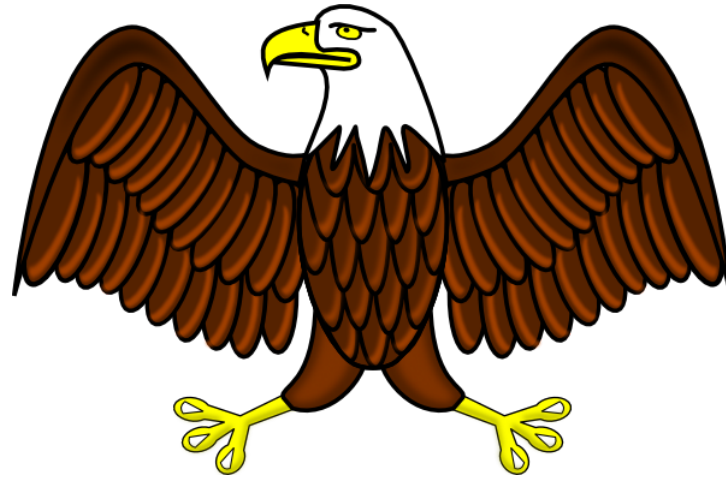

Stacey Adams and her Mother, Debbie Adams of Asheville, NC are a rarity for the WSGA entry form.

Donald Ross likes his bunkers deep and unkind. Karli
Heimberger bunkered in #15.

*No one from Oklahoma made the 1912 WSGA Amateur.
However, they were well represented in 2012 with Cowan, Whatley, Hall, McKamey, Baker (formerly of OK), Davis and Glenn.*

Corinna Rees eagled the 17th hole during her practice round and had to sink a 32 foot putt to do so!

Kathryn Miranda eagled the 14th hole during her first round match

Hannah Pierce and her Caddy Bessie Tate making history in the early morning as the 32rd seed sends the number one seed to the consolation.

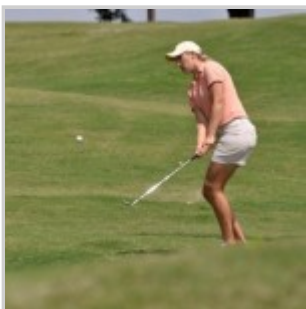

Corinna Rees number 2 seed

2012 Medalist on the 1st tee.

Maia Schecher

Junior Medalist, Evelyn Dole

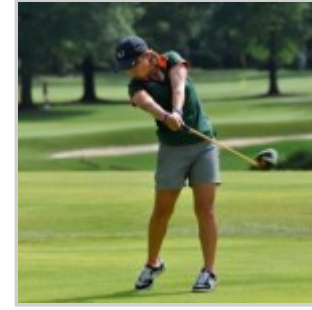

Best Dressed in 1912

Rachel Wyatt with earrings as big as golf balls

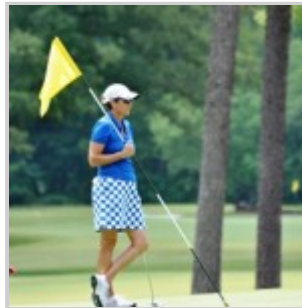

Senior golfers like Rose Whatley have no trouble challenging the young with fashion awareness.

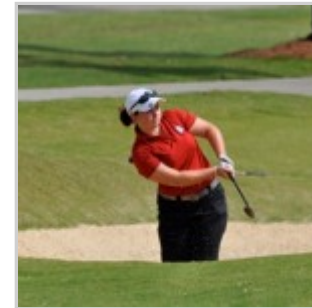

Team Uniform of green and orange works for Rika Park.

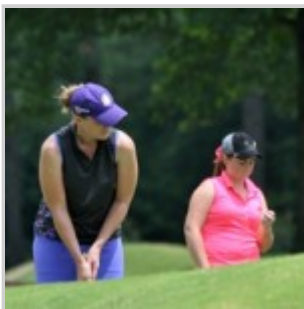

Amberlee Brooks loves retro dressing and manages to wow us every day with her vintage finds.

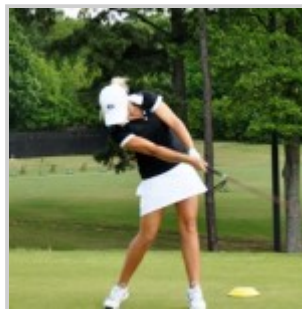

Susan West could double as a model for a golf magazine in this striking blue.

Hannah Pierce in classic attire.

Victoria Bennett and Tory Johnson prove color is in this year on the courses.

Collins Bradshaw proves black and white is always a winner in fashion.

Red hair, red shirt, skirt and hat ... Heather Proctor pulls it all together
