Diddel and renovated in 1994 by Ben Crenshaw has been a ranked golf destination among the Ouachita foothills for generations.

Creekmore Recaptures the Senior Crown

Champion Carolyn Creekmore of Dallas, Texas

Final Press Release

WSGA Senior Championship The Arlington Course Hot Springs Country Club Hot Springs, Arkansas Oct. 20-22.

54 holes of stroke play 36 hole qualifier for flights. Field 112 Yardage; 5241 70.6/ 124

A Repeat Seven Years in the Making

Carolyn Creekmore of Dallas, TX was all smiles as she held the same pose as pictured in the WSGA Senior Scrapbook of 2008. In Lexington, Virginia at the Lexington Country Club seven years ago, Creekmore faced the same difficult elevations change of the Hot Springs County Club's Arlington Course. "There is something about me and difficult hilly courses;" she said as she compared the two after her second round that had the scorers looking for red numbers. It was indeed that 70 written in red that launched her beyond reach of a very strong field.

Day three brought valiant charges from the field with all knowing that Creekmore could not post another subpar round with predicted winds fueling an approaching massive weather system. But all felt this past USGA and WSGA Senior Champion with her life-long experience would not falter and join the field bunched up seven strokes behind. Creekmore did not stumble posting a round of 76 aided by birdies on #7 and #12.

The real race became a race for Runner-Up. Phone texts flew quickly from spectator and spread like wildfire announcing that Tanna Richard, the Arkansas Golf Hall of Famer, had eagled #12. But, it was two of the youngest in the field, Janet Miller and Susan West that were attacking the course like professionals. Janet Miller of Catoosa, Oklahama, leader after the first round was determined not to stumble in this final round. Her 75-82-73 separated her from West and Richard by a stroke when the dust settled on the scoreboard. Susan West of Tuscaloosa, Alabama one of the "young guns" of senior amateur golf, posted the low round of the day with an even par round of 72 proclaimed in green on the scoreboard for all to see.

Excitement not only reigned in the Championship Flight but all six other flights as scores of flight winners proclaimed improvement each day. Lin Culver of Palm Coast, FL winner of the 2nd flight managed to improve her first round by an incredible 11 stokes. After Culver's first round the only thing she said to the Sean Saunders of the local paper interviewing her for an ace on #17 was: "That hole-in-one was the only decent score in my entire round!"

The greatest improvement goes to a player from the (often ignored) last flight. This flight is full of club players, older seniors and those who love to travel in packs to play golf. They enter early to guarantee a spot in the 56 entries accepted by date of entry. The first 56 are by handicap index. Martha Lawhorne of Keithville, Louisiana, a retired grocery store owner, improved her first round/second round score by 12 strokes to travel back to Louisiana with a silver bowl bigger than she. The professional company handling the WSGA website rarely comments on material sent for posting. However, upon receiving the flight winners photos sent back a comment that simply said; "I love the 6th Flight!" Take time to go to the Senior Championship page on the navigation black strip below the flag photos of this page. On this Senior Page flight winners are posted, select photos of the tournament and information specific to senior players. Scholl down to the 6th flight and take a look at tired faces that climbed what would be mountains in their home state, endured and conquered on the last day. Nancy Conravey (3rd place winner) is already excited about two facts for the 2016 tournament as she marks her calendar. There are no mountain ranges in Florida, the host state for the next WSGA Senior; and, she will have new knees freeing her from her blue handicap flag.

Everyone needs to be plotting a vacation in late October to Palm Coast, Florida.

Red Numbers Propel a Past Champion to a 7 Shot Lead

Not expecting sub par scoring for a senior event on the Arlington Course with its challenging elevation changes, undulating greens, penal bunkers, and narrow fairways, red numbers had not been set out by the scoring committee. A scoreboard supply box had to be rummaged to find red numbers. The wrong size font was hastily found and put up until the proper size could be uncovered.

CARPENTER Janie Gerland, TX	79	84	163
CARR Brenda	84	79	163
CONRAVEY Nancy	116	102	218
CONSTANT Donna Saint Franciscolle, LA	86	88	174
COWAN Ann	87	81	168
CREEKMORE Carolyn	78	70	148

It was Carolyn Creekmore of Dallas, TX, the 2008 WSGA Senior Champion, that had the crowd gathered around the scoreboard awaiting the delivery of red numbers. Creekmore birdies on 4, 9, 11, 12, 14 were aided by a chat with her golf instructor whom she called after round 1 describing a problem that she felt in her swing. A phone fix resulted in a round Carolyn Creekmore described as "the best round in a very long time". Creekmore, who missed the 2014 Senior recovering from shoulder surgery, was all smiles knowing her hard work of recovery had paid off in a great score on a great course.

Three players with pedigrees of southern golf are tied at 155 for second. Arkansas' favorite women's senior golfer Tanna Richard of Fort Smith, Taffy Brower the two time WSGA Senior Champion from Boynton, FL and the reigning WSGA Mid-Amateur Champion Gigi Higgins of Cape Coral, Fl, all have the odds against them closing that 7 stroke gap.

But, scores today proved that one good round will drastically change the landscape of a tournament.

If Creekmore refuses to cool the swing of precision she found today, the real action in the final maybe a race for the title of Runner-Up.

The three at 155 have the new senior talent out of Oklahoma, Janet Miller and the two-time WSGA Senior Champion Anna Schultz of Texas just 2 back; both are very capable of making a dramatic charge.

The story line will be revealed as the sun begins its fall into the Quachita Mountain Range. The 30th WSGA Senior Champion will be crowned and her name will be recorded in the WSGA Senior record book forever.

Action starts at 9 a.m. with a shotgun start for the entire field. The public is invited to follow the final round of the 2015 WSGA Senior Championship.

Oklahoma's Janet Miller of Catoosa Sneaks under the Radar to Lead the Senior Championship at Hot Springs Country Club.

With four former WSGA Champions in the field, the Inaugural WSGA Mid- Amateur Champion, a large group of USGA Women's Senior Championship Qualifiers and a wagon train of talent from Texas, Oklahoma was not on the player watch grid. Now, there is a big scramble to identify, Janet Miller of Catoosa, Oklahoma as she leads with a three over 75. Who is this youthful and powerful golfer that took advantage of the dry fairways and drove the ball out of the spotters visual range? With an interrogation of Oklahoma's WSGA Director Susan Hall, the story was revealed. Miller is the 2015 Oklahoma Senior Women's Champion and also the 2015 Oklahoma Women's Mid-Amateur. On top of that it seems her powerful swing played for OSU almost three decades ago.

Just one stroke back is a player always on the player watch, Taffy Brower of Boynton Beach, Fl. Taffy Brower has been flagged as contender for both the Senior and Super Senior Title. Brower's golf game seems to never age as she won the WSGA Senior in 2004, then repeated eight year later in 2012. She also won the WSGA Amateur in 2004. And, you cannot leave out the fact that she has Florida States Golf Hall of Fame to her additional credit.

Just three strokes back of Miller are two players with outstanding WSGA credentials. Gigi Higgins of Cape Coral is the reigning WSGA Mid-Amateur Champion and Carolyn Creekmore is a former WSGA Senior Champion (2008) the 2004 USGA Women's Senior Champion and an inductee into both the Arkansas and Texas Golf Hall of Fame.

Lucie King of Tuscaloosa, AL and Janie Carpenter of Garland, TX are two other players that have flown under the player watch radar just 4 back of the leader. Tanna Richard of Arkansas Golf Hall of Fame also shot a 79; but, Richard was properly flagged as a player to watch.

The Defending Champion Kelley Nittoli of San Antonio, TX as well as Runner –up Marlene Summers of Montgomery, TX have catching up to do with six and five stroke deficits. Since this is a 54-hole event tomorrows scores will be very important for positioning for the final press for the crown. All must not lose ground, be patient and hope for a string of putts to fall.

The excitement will be around the scoreboard in the late afternoon as the top players finish their rounds. All players will have eyes on the scoring as the flights for the final round will be determined by this 36-hole total score.

Make plans to gathering around the scoreboard as sun begins to sets on the Arlington Course.

WELCOMING AND PRACTICE OVER TIME FOR PLAY AT THE 30 WSGA SENIOR CHAMPIONSHIP

Action starts today, Oct. 19th, as the first round of the WSGA Senior begins on the scenic hills of the Arlington Course at Hot Springs Country Club. Please visit the Senior Championship Section found above by clicking on the black strip with the senior label. Here you will find highlights of the welcome party as well as action shots taken as players practiced navigating a course carved out of the foothills of the ancient Ouachita Mountain range.

The final yardage has been set at 5241 making the Senior Championship comparable to most ladies country club tees. However there were tales of that being "the longest 5200 yards" from players from the plain states. In actuality, all confessed it was the greens that added strokes to their practice not the climb uphill which they could adjust with the mental gymnastics of club selecting. One solid piece of information spread like a wildfire among players as they shared in the sisterhood of golf was: DO NOT BE ABOVE THE PIN.

This is a 54 hole event; so there is still time for the nuances of the Arlington Course to be conquered by this amazing field of southern talented senior golfers.

The Hot Springs Country Club sits high on a hill above Highway 270 as you enter Hot Springs, AR. This is a side view of the massive clubhouse with double doors leading to the Pro Shop under the arch. The front of the club is around to the right and faces the Arlington Course: our host course opened in 1930. The Park Course is below the left side of the clubhouse and also features Bentgrass greens; it is a longer course with more open fairways and its own challenging water hazards. The Country Club was established in 1898 as a semi-private club. More information on the club can be found at <a href="https://doi.org/10.1001/journal.org/10.10

HOLE #12 OF THE ARLINGTON COURSE

Locals consider this the signature hole of the Arlington Course because it made the cover of Golf

Digest in (reportedly) 1962. This photo does not do justice to the elevation changes that are actually present. Bunkers, uneven lies and tree defined fairways have made this William Dibbel design able to endure the advancements of golf equipment and player development to remain an exciting challenge.

HOLE #8

Pat Elliott, a local member, offered this up as her favorite hole because of its natural beauty. This short par three guarded by deep bunkers, a water carry, a false front, a prevailing wind, and a postage stamp green have challenged the club ladies to believe in their club selection for generations..

Pictured is WSGA Director Pam Spikes proving that Senior golfers will have no problem facing this little challenge. Note the fan in the rear of the green cooling the Bentgrass green re-introduced when Ben Crenshaw did a minor redesign of the course in 1994.

Janie Carpenter (WSGA President Elect) has to shape her tee shot to follow the tree line and fade to the left edge of this fairway. A practice round is essential for understanding the landing areas and club selections to elevated greens.

Susan Hall, Entry Chairman, proves you can hit a fairway if you take dead aim.

This worker is in charge of saving this green from weather to the Course.

Considered the most challenging of the par threes, #17 just requires players to figure the downhill heat until October brings Chamber of Commerce reduction in distance and avoid the penal bunkers.

The Arlington Resort Hotel and Spa: host hotel for the WSGA Senior

The WSGA Senior host hotel is the Arlington Hotel and Spa in downtown Hot Springs Arkansas. Even if you are not staying at the hotel, this historic landmark deserves a visit while you are in Hot Springs. This structure is the third Arlington Hotel. The first hotel built where the photo was taken (across the street in the Hot Springs National Park) was opened in 1875. The reportedly healing properties of the springs brought visitors to the waters that were discovered and used for medical purposes by the first inhabitants of the Quachita mountains. The second Arlington Hotel burned just as this present structure was being built directly across the street from the original hotels.

This hotel, opened in 1924, will give all a look into a glorious past. With 560 rooms for guests this was the center for social life, family vacations, conventions, and health seekers for 90 years. Stop by take a look at the in house museum, gawk at the Crystal Ballroom, the enormous lobby, the gilded architecture and sit on the veranda and watch the National Park tourists as they meander the sidewalks and trails.

Those of you who are staying at the Arlington Resort Hotel and Spa need to know a few things to make your stay a special trip back into the Gilded Age of Architecture. These front steps are steeper in reality than they look. So, the bell hops are in the Valet Parking area beyond the green awning canopy of the side entrance pictured on the left of the picture. The Valet entrance will be clearly marked vertically on the side of the Hotel facing Hwy 7. Unload in this garage where extra bellhops will be available to help; then go through the large automatic doors that lead to the hotel front desk.

Valet parking is $15 a day; so you may want to take advantage of the self parking structure just a 1/2 block beyond Valet parking. You will be given a pass for the guest garage parking at the check-in desk or at valet parking.

The drive to Hot Springs Country Club takes about 10 minutes from the Hotel. The Resort offers guest privileges to Hot Spring Country Club. You may want to take advantages of your room and play the other course while in town or an extra practice round. The owner of the Hotel also owns the Country Club.

Since the Hotel was built before the modern need for many electrical outlets; you might want to bring an extension cord. I had to unplug the lamp to plug in computer or charge my phone. But, the nostalgic trip back in time is worth bringing a cord. Note the glass door knobs of the room, the old key which you will not lose because it cost $25 to replace. That retro tile of the bathroom is not retro but the original tile from 1924. The iron tubs of old have been replaced probably some where in the 60s decade from the look of the tubs and showers. The closet is a huge walk in closet probably because people dressed for show back in the glory years before the stock market crash of 1929. There are even shelves above the hanging area; no shelves that can hold anything in the bathroom. You might have to use the closet to store your make-up bag.

Once you get settled you need to take an adventure walk. There is Starbucks on site that opens at 6:30 a.m., dining options, a full service salon, a spa, mineral baths pumped directly from Hot Springs to the hotel, an exercise room, and a double decker outdoor pool with warm water year round accessed from the 7th floor and a shopping area in the basement.

Stroll outside and try those steps and cross the street to the Hot Springs National Park. Put your finger in the sample hot spring and guess the temperature of the water. If you are a young senior take the hike to the observation tower where you can overlook all of the area. Janie Carpenter recommends you take the drive up to the tower and save you legs for the terrain of the Arlington Course.

If you want to visit some of the enormous venue rooms that have entertained Kings and Queen, Presidents and Gangsters and icon of 9 decades just ask the staff for a look. Don't miss the Fountain Room where the pig was roasted in the enormous fireplace while the fountain warmed the room with hot water from the springs.

A chance to test the temperature of the water just The exercise room in the basement of the Arlington 100 yards from the Arlington Resort Hotel and Spa.

Resort Hotel

A morning stroll along the Promenade is a treat. Doctors recommended health seekers bathing in the mineral waters take a stroll afterwards for their health. Of course, some just strolled to show off the latest fashions of the day.

Breakfast is served here daily. Get a seat by the window and watch early morning joggers at the National Park. Dinner is served also here Watching the National Park tourists from the Veranda. These trees will be golden for our visit.

The Veranda extends on both sides of the front steps.Starbucks in house makes this veranda a favorite place to gather before a round of golf or after.

Autumn leaves + The WSGA + Hot Springs, Arkansas

= A Record Wait-listed Entry

Susan Hall WSGA Entry Chairman was totally surprised at the entry response to the 30th playing of the WSGA Senior Championship. She had to close entry early when the wait list broke the Inaugural wait list long standing record of 27 set in 1986 by an additional 19. Is it the healing waters of the infamous Hot Springs National Park, the promise of Arkansas fail foliage among the Ouachita Mountains, the historical Hot Springs Country Club as host club, or just time for a vacation that has produced this entry phenomena?

Whatever the reason for the full wait listed field of senior women, the WSGA welcomes a strong field from 12 of the 15 Southern States. The field is set at 112 with 56 of the players representing the lowest handicaps; the second 56 are entered according to date of receipt of entry with a 23.5 or above handicap requirement. The cut for the low 56 is another record breaker at 8.1.

The field is stacked with a defending champion, three more former champions and a player watch that is a who's who of southern women's amateur golf. Three States have entries that are also found in their Golf Hall of Fames. Four players made the cut at the USGA Senior Amateur, five more qualified and two have USGA Titles in their resume. And one player is the reigning WSGA Mid-Amateur Champion.

States that might have a viable chance at a title are as follows.

TEXAS

Defending champion Kelley Nittoli of San Antonio will lead the Texas charge followed by two former WSGA Senior Champions, Carolyn Creekmore of Dallas 2008 and Anna Schultz of Rockwall 2006-2007. Nittoli brings her youthful swing of collegiate days having just reached the magic age of 50 in 2014, while Creekmore and Schultz bring USGA Senior Titles and Hall of Fame by their names. Creekmore was inducted into both the Arkansas and Texas Golf Hall of fame in 2010. Schultz was inducted into the Texas Golf Hall of fame in 2013. With 43 entries Texas plans on taking a wagon train of silver back to Texas. You can never count out some bridesmaids stealing the show as the player watch proclaims a few more dangerous Texas talents: Nancy Beck of Dallas, Leslie O. Henry of Carrollton, Becky Neal of Mansfield, Karen Northcutt of the Woodlands, Julie Robichaux of Kingwood, and Marlene Summers of Montgomery.

ARKANSAS

Arkansas has the second largest entry led by Tanna Richard of Fort Smith, Brenda Carr of Bentonville, and Pam Spikes of Maumelle. Richard has Hall of Fame by her named inducted in 2006 into the Arkansas Golf Hall of Fame. Carr just won the Arkansas Senior Match Play title. Spikes may know just enough nuances of the Arlington Course to have an advantage. It may all come down to practice and tournament enhanced knowledge of those Bentgrass greens and extreme elevation changes.

FLORIDA

Florida has 6 entries led by Gigi Higgins of Cape Coral, the youthful senior who captured the Inaugural WSGA Mid-Amateur. Although the Mid-Amateur was a match play event, Higgins can go low in stroke play holding her home course record of 68. Two more superior talents back up Higgins as possible contenders. Florida State Golf Hall of Fame member, Taffy Brower of Boynton Beach has two WSGA Senior Titles (2004 & 2012) and a WSGA Amateur title of 2004. Note, that although two other players (Toni Wiesner and Martha Jones Lang) have won both the WSGA Amateur and Senior, only Brower has won the event the same year. This record may stand forever. Janice Wilson of Flagler Beach made a strong statement as Quarterfinalist at the Inaugural WSGA Mid-Amateur in June. She attributes her new found success to retirement providing time to practice her first love, golf.

VIRGINIA

Mimi Hoffman of Springfield was runner up to Brower in the 2012 battle for the senior title. Hoffman just returned from playing those uneven lies in Nashville, TN after making the cut at the USGA Women's Senior.

ALABAMA

Susan West of Tuscaloosa made the cut for the USGA Women's Senior for the second year in a row. She gained special status having reached the quarterfinals in her debut as a senior in 2014. As a rookie senior she finished fourth at the 2014 WSGA Senior.

GEORGIA

Deb Jackson of Johns Creek is Georgia's lone entry. After a successful business career Jackson has retired and returned to tournament play. As a course rater for the State of Georgia she has played all the elevated hilly courses of Georgia and understands what makes a slope rating. 2014 was her WSGA debut and she went home with First Flight honors.

LOUISIANA

The Pelican State has the third highest number of entries; but none of their entries made the 8.1 handicap entry cut. They all entered early to capture their spot and will go home with flight silver.

Two states: West Virginia and Kentucky and the District of Columbia are missing this year from the 16 areas of membership defined in 1911 when the WSGA was former in Atlanta, GA.

MISSISSIPPI

Pam Posey of Bailey and Sheila Haynes of Madison will most likely make the Championship Flight from their consistent record in past senior events. With State tiles by both names, they could be scary if others falter in adapting to the greens and elevation changes.

NORTH CAROLINA

North Carolina is home to the Super Senior whose golf game never ages. Cynthia Curry of Charlotte captured the Super Senior Perpetual Trophy established in 1989 in 2012 then followed up as Co-Super Senior Champion in 2013. Curry will face Louise Davis who gained her super status last year turning 70 in 2014. Taffy Brower, the afore mentioned WSGA Amateur and Senior Champion from Boynton, FL, will replace Davis as the "super rookie" this year. With a win Brower could rewrite WSGA history by holding three WSGA titles, proving that this sport is indeed a lifetime sport.

While Tennessee and Maryland will be bringing players to round out the field and maybe go home with flight silver; West Virginia, South Carolina, Kentucky, and D.C all whom had seniors qualify for the USGA Women's Senior are not making the trip to Arkansas this year.

This is Arkansas third hosting of the WSGA Senior. In 2001 Harbor Oaks Golf Club Pine Bluff hosted the WSGA just 14 days after the terrorist attack of 9/11. Amazingly 92 players competed proving that southern women would carry on with golf travel plans and not let foreign attacks control them with fear. In 2010 Texarkana Country Club of Texarkana, Arkansas was the host of the WSGA with a real battle between Arkansas and Texas for the most players.

Today, the City of Hot Springs, awaits the arrival of a full field of senior women golfers. The Hot Springs Country Club's General Manager and Director of Golf, Barry Howard, has worked closely with Interim President Linda Carter in arranging a real Southern Welcome to the National Park City, the Hot Springs Country Club and the herald Arlington Course. Behind every WSGA event are these unsung heroes of the Host Club and Country Club staff. Please thank the Host Club, Chairman, Betty Kate Carney, and the country club members and staff for opening their prized course and prestigious club to the southern women.

The Arlington Course designed by William H. Diddel opened in 1932 and underwent some redesigning in 1994 by Ben Crenshaw. Here you will find narrow fairways, elevation changes, Bermuda grass fairways and Bentgrass greens. Set in the beautiful foothills of the Ouachita Mountain range the course has been a favorite of visitors to Arkansas for eight-one years.

Action begins Monday Oct. 19^{th} with practice rounds followed by two days of qualifying for Flights. The scoreboard on Wednesday the 21^{st} will be the center of activity as the Championship flight is determined. The public is welcome to come and follow the final stroke play round on Thursday the 22^{nd} . A shotgun start will have all in for awards shortly after Noon when the 30^{th} WSGA Senior Champion will be crowned.

Check the full list of contestants on our website and be sure to meet some of the ladies who call this area home. Both Patricia Elliot and Carrie Hall call the country club their home course. Others from nearby Hot Springs Village will also be sleeping in their own beds and have some local knowledge of uneven lies and club selections for elevation changes. Hot Springs Village sends Joan Archer, Cassandra Groh, Rebecca Huber, Kathy Norris and Sandra Smit.

Please check the Senior Championship landing on the black information strip of our web for more information on the tournament and host hotel as well as archives for a history of our 30 years of providing a Senior Championship.

SOUTH CAROLINA

South Carolina has two seasoned golfers who had to be patient on the wait list until a spot opened up for them. WSGA Director Judy Allardice of Aiken gave her spot to a fellow South Carolinian only to return to the field with an emergency cancellation. At the Inaugural Senior in 1986, there were a group of golfers on the wait-list make the trip to Florida, stayed in hotels and waited in hope of such an emergency cancellation.

While Oklahoma, Tennessee and Maryland will be bringing players to round out the field and maybe go home with flight silver; West Virginia, Kentucky, and D.C all whom had seniors qualifiers for the USGA Women's Senior are not making the trip to Arkansas this year.

Nestled in the Ouachita foothills and surrounded by neighboring lakes and national parks, the Hot Springs Country Club continues to operate with those same southern traditions of service. With 36 holes of golf available, the club offers a variety of golfing experiences.
